PORSCHE - CORVETTE CHALLENGE AT THE VETERANS VICTORY HOUSE CAR SHOW

MAY 14, 2011 is upon us !! The challenge of "Who will have the most "CLUB" cars at the Veterans Victory House Car Show is alive and kicking. The car show and challenge will be here before you know it. I have arranged for tent and chairs so we can hang out in the shade with fellow club members. I will have water there for you and there will be a couple of vendors there as well so you can get lunch or a snack. Last I checked the Walterboro Cruisers are trying to arrange for a BBQ Sandwich and a drink for $2.50. Your cars do not have to be Concours ready, just rinse it off and bring it out. Check the web site

Remember the show isn't about how many trophy's our cars might win but in supporting our Veterans. It's because of our Veteran's that we have the freedom to drive our beloved cars on our roadways.

Please email me or go online at <http://www.walterborocruisers.net/WC/Flyer.html> if you'd like to pre-register ($15 - $20 day of show). If you can't make the show and just want to donate, you can give it to Roger/Beth Knobe or me. We'll get it there for you. National PCA has authorized and sent their donation in the amount of $385.00 and we'll see at the next monthly meeting (TUESDAY) how much our club would like to contribute.

RALLY to Harold's Country Club

On May 21st, we are heading to Harold's Country Club to meet up with Coastal Empire Region. This is a TSD Rally which means you shouldn't get lost and have a chance for a prize. Coastal Empire will also be doing a TSD. So this event is not only competing against our local region but coastal as well. Harold's Country Club may have a limited menu but the steaks are some of the best you'll find so RSVP through the website. This is an RSVP event as Harold's Country Club serves the steak cooked to order. The steak is served with a "salad bar" setup with pre-mixed tossed salad, a few dressings, baked potatoes, grilled Vidalia onions, rolls, butter, sour cream, steak sauces and sweet/unsweet tea for $16.00. There is a bar with a wide assortment of other drinks available, not included in the $16. price.

Harold's Country Club is an historic / authentic place from the rural south. Once a gas station, now a country store, bar, and restaurant. Just in the door is the bar/country store. To the left are the pool tables and through the back is the restaurant. After the line opens up, the chinette paper plate is served with your steak to a buffet style salad bar then to the tables and folding chairs. After completing the delicious steak, many folks go back up front to the bar and stay for the Karaoke and dancing. Oh, don't forget to check out the old gas pumps up front that still work.

Does your portfolio perform as well as your Porsche?

If not, you may need a tune-up. When the markets turn as volatile and confusing as they have over the past year, even the most patient investors may come to question the wisdom of the investment plan that they've been following. Please contact us for a second opinion.

Something German - Introducing Germany

Beer or wine? That sums up the German conundrum. One is at the heart of a pilsner-swilling culture that draws keglods of visitors annually, is the very reason for one of the world's great parties (Oktoberfest) and is consumed with pleasure across the land. The other is exported worldwide, is responsible for gorgeous vine-covered valleys and is enjoyed everywhere, often from cute little green-stemmed glasses. And the questions about Germany continue. Berlin or Munich? Castle or club? Ski or hike? East or west? BMW or Mercedes? In fact, the answers are simple: both. Why decide? The beauty of Germany is that rather than choosing, you can revel in the contrasts (except maybe with the car question...). Exploring this country and all its facets can keep visitors happy for weeks.

Berlin, edgy and vibrant, is a grand capital in a constant state of reinvention. At the other end, Munich perches atop Bavaria, the centre of national traditions. Half-timbered villages can't help but bring smiles as you wander their cobblestoned and castle-shadowed lanes. Cities of all sizes boast some of Europe's best clubs, as you'd expect from the home of techno. Enjoying the outdoors, from skiing Alpine peaks to hiking carefully preserved forests, is essential. And compare the ancient traditions of the east, as beautiful Dresden adjusts to the 21st century, with Cologne, where decades of prosperity burnish its grand heritage.

For those who are wondering why the newsletter looks a little slim. Jackie has departed for Italy and left the newsletter for me to do. Hoping she has a good time but wishing she had done the newsletter before she left.

The Porsche Parade is the PCA's annual convention. It is a week long extravaganza of car events, tech sessions, social events and FUN. Whether you like to autocross, rally, tour or concours, there is plenty to do and see. Attendance is roughly 2000 people, most of which arrive in their beautiful and much loved Porsche automobiles. In addition to all these fun activities (see the schedule page) the Parade is a great family vacation. It provides you with the opportunity to visit a different area of the country each year, as well as the chance to catch up with all your Parade friends that you only see at Parade.

In addition to the traditional car related activities you can enjoy a golf tournament, a 5K Run/Walk, RC Car racing, and the Tech Quiz. We will offer numerous tours to local attractions to introduce you to the great Savannah area, as well as give a little free-time to relax and enjoy it. We also promise plenty of opportunities to socialize with friends new and old. The Parade is the best of PCA all in one action packed week. Don't miss out! German Recipe By Jennifer McGavin, About.com Guide

Jaegerschnitzel with Mushroom Sauce

A creamy mushroom sauce served over meat cutlets is called Jaegerschnitzel (or Jägerschnitzel) in German cuisine. There are several other variations, for example with bacon or red wine, but the most common sauce is sautéed mushrooms with white wine and cream. These can be common button mushrooms, Pfifferlinge (chanterelles), or mixtures of several mushrooms. You may also bread the cutlets, if you like. The sauce is very good as an omelet filling, too.

Serves 4

Prep Time: 20 minutes

Cook Time: 20 minutes

Total Time: 40 minutes

Ingredients:

Sauce

1 small shallot or onion, 1/2 c. chopped	1 T. butter
8 oz. mushrooms, sliced	1/2 c. broth
1/2 c. white wine	1/2 c. + 2 T. half and half or cream, divided
2 T. flour or brown rice flour	1/4 tsp. salt
Freshly ground pepper	3 T. fresh parsley, chopped

Cutlets

1 lb. (400 grams) pork cutlets from roast cut 1/4 - 1/2 inch thick	3 T. flour or brown rice flour

Preparation:

Jaegersauce Preparation

Sauté onion until translucent, add sliced mushrooms, brown for 5 minutes. Add broth and wine, cook 3 minutes. Add 1/2 cup of half and half or cream, bring to a boil and simmer for several minutes. Mix remaining 2 tablespoons of cream with 2 tablespoons of flour. Add flour slurry to mushroom mixture and bring to a boil, stirring to avoid clumps. Add parsley, salt and pepper to taste. Keep warm while cutlets are cooked.

Schnitzel Preparation

Melt 2 tablespoons butter in skillet. Lay out cutlets on cutting board, cover with plastic wrap and pound until thin (1/4 inch thick or less). Dip in flour mixed with pepper, salt and cayenne pepper, shake off extra flour and sauté in 2 tablespoons butter for 3 minutes on each side.

Serve with sauce and potatoes.

Final Thoughts from the Prez...

Another month past and the calendar is full! We have the Porsche - Corvette Challenge at the Veterans Victory House Car Show coming up very quickly. We need as many cars as we can to come out to help Jackie meet the challenge. She said we would have more Porsches than Corvettes at the show. Just rinse your car off and come on out. Our meeting this month is at Logan's Steakhouse in Summerville and we have a TSD Rally to Harold's Country Club (May 21st) in Yemassee. Myrtle Beach also has their monthly drive to Huntington Beach State Park for a BBQ on the 22nd. A couple of DE's for our drivers are also on the calendar and the June meeting will be held in conjunction with the anniversary party at the Porter's beach house in Kiawah Island. With all these things on the calendar, make yourself come out and get involved. If there something you would like, just let me know and we'll try to "get-r-done." IF YOU ONLY DO ONE THING WITH THE CLUB THIS YEAR, MAKE IT THE PORSCHE - CORVETTE CHALLENGE coming up Saturday, May 14th.

See you soon, Ken
